THINK "PETTICOAT KING" CONCEALED PART OF LOOT. defunct firm.

Attorneys for Receiver Begin Search for Assets They Believe Salo Jackson Hid.

An effort is being made to-day to loeate some of the $50,000 which, it is aleged, Salo J. Jackson, the "Petticoat Eing." formerly President of the Jackcon-Mack Company, is alleged to have fiched from banking firms of this city fileded from banking firms of this city on false invoices of goods. Jackson is now in the Tombs awaiting sentence by Justice Seabury in the Supreme Court on the plea of guilty to grand larceny in the first degree.

It is believed by representatives of the firm of Rosenberg & Levis of No. 170 Broadway, attorneys for Frederick W. Wakefield, the receiver and trustee in bankrupter of Jackson, that the latter has secreted a great deal of the money he obtained in his fraudulent scheme, Justice Seabury, at the request of Assistant District-Attorney James O'Maliey, in charge of the prosecution of Jackson, granted an order on Sheriff Harburger to produce Jackson in the District-Attorney's office to-day, to help the examination of the books of the
